It's Back...

LONG GROVE COMMUNITY AUCTION

Ever been to a community auction? They usually take place at a local watering hole, and it seems like half the town shows up to eat, drink, and bid on each other's treasure. It's a big ol' barrel of fun. We used to have such a happening in Long Grove, but, like many things from days gone by, it hasn't been seen around these parts for many a moon. Well, we're bringing it back, for one night only, with the proceeds going to charity—The Long Grove Historical Society (that's us...). When we get the place, date, time finalized (we're currently investigating mid-June), we'll let you know, but for now,

WE NEED YOUR TREASURE. If you have something you'd be willing to donate to us for the auction, please contact either Marie Borg at (847) 438-7656 or Laurie Borawski at (847) 949-5264 or email us at admin@LongGroveHistory.org and let us know. Who knows, if enough people have enough of a good time... maybe the auction will decide to stick around Long Grove and become a regular happening.
