Re: Special Event Application for Summer Concert Series

Dear LGBCP Board,

Enclosed is our 2013 Special Event application form for the LGAMC Summer Concert Series to be held in Fountain Square. As of this date we are waiting for two items. One is to finalize our insurance coverage and the other is to attain written permission from the current property owners. Both of these items will forthcoming by the end of April, so we request a contingent approval of this event application.

As in past years, all activities will take place within the Fountain Square area of the Historic Business District. One tent will be erected to cover the refreshment area.

Please let me know if you will need any further information.

Thank you for your support.

Sincerely,

Tobin Fraley
President - Long Grove Arts & Music Council

LONG GROVE ARTS & MUSIC COUNCIL

2013 Summer Concert Series

July 7 – Special Consensus Bluegrass Band

Special Consensus is a superb bluegrass band in a classic vein but with more than enough modern sensibilities to attract every music lover. The vocals are spotless, the playing as shiny as a newly minted penny, and music like this is the reason people love bluegrass.

July 14 – Don Stiernberg's Jazz Quartet

Don Stiernberg has made a career of breaking tradition by actually paying homage to tradition. Many albums under his belt, he's brought almost single-handedly the genre-stymied mandolin to prominence as a legitimate and justifiable voice in jazz. Don has taken the master's training and work to a whole new and distinctive level.

July 21 – April Verch, Traditional Canadian Fiddle

April Verch, doesn't just perform music, she exudes it. The internationally renowned Canadian fiddler, singer, songwriter and stepdancer has a passion for performing and her goal is to touch the lives of those who are listening at any given moment.

July 28 – Delilah Dewylde & The Lost Boys

Mixing their own self-penned songs with vintage country/honky tonk hits, rockabilly favorites, and surf gems by such artists as Hank Williams Sr., Johnny Cash, Wanda Jackson, and Buck Owens. Delilah and the Lost Boys come out on stage looking and sounding like a step back in time.

August 4 – Corky Siegel's Siegel/Schwall Blues Band

Along with groups like The Paul Butterfield Blues Band, The Siegel-Schwall Band was instrumental in The Great Blues Revival of the 1960's. Like Paul Butterfield, Siegel-Schwall were Chicago-based, serving as the house band at the famed Pepper's Lounge. And now, hardly slowing down, they are coming to Long Grove.

August 11 – Bonnie Koloc

The enduring and versatile voice of Bonnie Koloc has been heard in Chicago since 1968. For a decade, Bonnie was a pivotal act at the Earl of Old Town, drawing crowds that stood in lines around the block, hoping, at least, for a place to stand to catch the hottest act in town. In time her folk-oriented style merged with jazz and blues. Long Grove is honored to host a true Chicago legend.

August 18 – Maxwell Street Klezmer

Maxwell Street was to Chicago what the Lower East Side was to New York. At the turn of the century, when the first wave of immigrants came to America, Maxwell Street became famous for its open-air Sunday marketplace. And like the Yiddish theater of yesteryear, a performance of the Maxwell Street Klezmer Band brings the optimism, pathos, irony, zest for life, and unique humor of the American Jewish immigrant to the modern stage.

August 25 – Beans & Leaves / Long Grove Day

Featuring our own Reid Olsen and a host of other terrific performers who play at the greatest coffee house in Lake County, Illinois - Beans & Leaves
